Honorable Members of the City Council
c/o City Clerk
City Hall, Room 395

Honorable Members:

Subject to your confirmation, I have appointed Dr. Laura Dominguez to the Cultural Heritage Commission for the term ending June 30, 2028.

I certify that in my opinion Dr. Dominguez is especially qualified by reason of training and experience for the work which shall devolve upon her, and that I make the appointment solely in the interest of the City.

Dr. Dominguez will fill the vacancy created by the departure of Gail Kennard.

Sincerely,

Professional & Public Humanities Experience (select)

- 2025- Postdoctoral Scholar & Research Associate, USC-Huntington Early Modern Studies Institute
Collaborates with scholars, curators, and community educators on public humanities programming associated with the LA2026 initiative, a National Endowment for the Humanities-funded project focused on regional engagement with the U.S. Semiquincentennial. Key responsibilities include: coordinating participatory humanities events with partner institutions; managing project website; building relationships with local communities; co-curating select exhibition content; and mentoring graduate and undergraduate student workers.
- 2025- Advisor, The Latinx Freedom Movement Archive & Exhibit Project
Serves as a subject-matter expert on a Mellon Foundation-funded public humanities initiative highlighting the civil rights struggles of Latinas/os/xs in the twentieth-century. Key responsibilities include: advising Los Angeles-based curator on exhibition themes and research topics; building relationships with institutional collaborators; engaging movement leaders; providing feedback on exhibition content and design; and supporting national project coordinators.
- 2024- Sub-Consultant, HistoricPlacesLA Revealed: Reimagining Historic Markers for the 21st Century
Serves as a Latino/a/x history subject-matter expert and community engagement advisor for an in-progress documentation and interpretation project sponsored by the City of Los Angeles Office of Historic Resources and managed by Page & Turnbull (lead consultant). Key tasks include: co-convening the Community Advisory Committee; proposing strategies for community participation and relationship-building; evaluating proposed historic sites; and curating historical content for physical markers and digital storytelling.

- 2023-2025 NPS Mellon Humanities Postdoctoral Fellow, American Conservation Experience
Served as the “New Perspectives in Transcontinental Railroad (TCRR) History” Fellow in the Intermountain Regional Office of the National Park Service. Key responsibilities included: partnership development with descendant communities, Tribal Nations, scholars, curators, and other community-based experts; evaluation of existing and proposed interpretive programs in relation to current scholarship; and preparation of TCRR historical study and associated National Historic Landmark application. Equivalent to GS-11 in federal service.
- 2014-2017 Preservation Coordinator/Preservation Manager, Los Angeles Conservancy
Advocated for preservation of historic resources in Los Angeles County, with a specific focus on collaborating with historically excluded communities. Key accomplishments included: managing multi-year LGBTQ+ Historic Places in L.A. project and short film series; authoring and supporting landmark nominations associated with women’s history; building capacity among community advocates through technical assistance and educational workshops; spearheading the organization’s first DEI task force; and supervising Getty Marrow Interns.
- 2012-2014 Communications and Programs Manager, San Francisco Heritage
Co-produced educational programs for youth and adult audiences and oversaw editorial content, branding, and media relations. Key accomplishments included: developing the first public campaign for legacy businesses and cultural heritage assets in the U.S., including a digital mapping and storytelling subject site; managing the “Discover SF! Youth Heritage Program” in partnership with the National Park Service and Filipino American Development Foundation; and co-authoring the award-winning policy report, “Sustaining San Francisco’s Living History.”
- 2011-2012 Library Assistant II, Getty Research Institute
Applied knowledge of GRI archival standards and special collections policies to mid-century modern architectural collections. Key tasks included: physical processing and arrangement of the materials; drafting of item descriptions and production of finding aids; and basic conservation tasks.
- 2009 Getty Intern, City of Los Angeles, Office of Historic Resources
Served as a summer Getty Multicultural Undergraduate Intern (now Getty Marrow Undergraduate Internship Program). Key tasks included: working with department leadership to prepare staff reports for the Cultural Heritage Commission; assisting with site documentation and coordination of public meetings; and contributing research to the citywide historic context statement.

Dear Dr. Dominguez:

Congratulations! I am pleased to inform you of your appointment to the Cultural Heritage Commission for the term ending June 30, 2028, subject to confirmation by the Los Angeles City Council.

On behalf of the people of Los Angeles, thank you for your willingness to serve. Our boards and commissions are a vital part of the City's governance, and your leadership and expertise will play an important role in shaping the future of Los Angeles.

To move forward, there are a few steps you must complete prior to the Council's consideration of your appointment. My Commission Affairs team has prepared an attached checklist with deadlines and submission instructions, and they are available to support you throughout the confirmation process.

Once again, congratulations, and thank you for your commitment to serve the people of Los Angeles.

Sincerely,
