Comments for Public Posting: Dear Members of the Los Angeles City Council, On this day, I was at home when I first heard about the attacks in New York City. I was a high school student at the time, and I vividly remember waking up, turning on the news, and seeing the World Trade Center on fire. It was horrifying to watch people running for their lives as the buildings collapsed. I will never forget that day. The sadness and heartbreak of September 11, 2001, will stay with me for the rest of my life. We remember and honor all those who lost their lives. Thank you, Lionel Mares
